

Your Pedigree Chart

We have traced your paternal ancestry for the surname Lehman all the way back to Jacob Lehman, born in Hindelbank, Switzerland around the year 1546 AD.

Name	Birth Year	Death Year	Birth Location
Jacob Lehman	1546	1612	Hindelbank, Bern, Switzerland
Jacob Lehman	1580	Unknown	Unknown
Hans Ulrich Lehman	c. 1611	c. 1670	Hindelbank, Bern, Switzerland
Hans Georg Lehman	Unknown	Unknown	Hessen, Switzerland
Niclaus Lehman	1678	1742	Signau
Johannes Lehman	1710	1762	Hessen, Switzerland
Johannes Heinrich Lehman	1750	1795	Hessen, Switzerland
Michael Lehman	1777	1828	Weidenmuhle
Joannes Adamus	c. 1770	1852	Wiesemscheid, Ahrweiler
Joannes Joseph	c. 1805	1879	Wiesemscheid, Ahrweiler
Joseph Lehman	1835	1911	Germany
William Lehman	1870	1922	Westphalia, Clinton County
Francis John Lehman	1911	2000	Westphalia, Clinton, Michigan
Michael Paul Lehman	1952	Living	Grand Rapids, Wayne, Michigan
Alexander Paul Lehman	1985	Living	Royal Oak, Michigan

Coat of Arms Consultation

Our database has 23 different coats of arms for the surname Lehman, which are associated with the following areas: Germany, Austria, Holland, Switzerland, and France. Given your ancestors lived in Bern, Switzerland in the 1500s and 1600s, based on geography, the most likely coat of arms for your family is the following:

The source for this arms is The Armorial General by Johannes Baptista Rietstap, first published in 1861. The coat of arms is annotated as being found in Bern, Switzerland. The blazon, in French, is as follows: “D’azur à un soc de charrue d’argent la pointe en bas accosté en pointe de deux étoiles d’or et soutenu d’un tertre de sinople Cimier un homme issant habillé d’azur coiffé d’un chapeau du même tenant de sa main dextre un soc de charrue d’argent la pointe en haut ou un trèfle de sinople”. In English, this roughly translates to “A blue shield with a silver (or white) plow, tip facing down, between two stars or, all over three green hills.”

Ancestral Photos & Documents

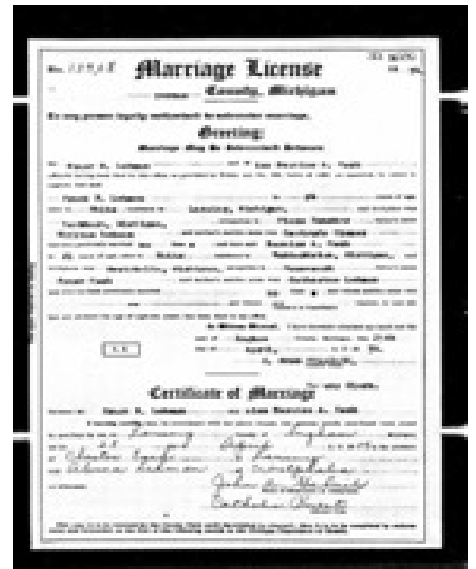

Your great great grandfather,
Joseph Lehman

Tombstone of Joannes Lehman

Picture of the Lehman family house in Switzerland

Grandparents marriage certificate